 - d. They shall have used all talents and means to preserve and protect the Kingdom, the Crown, and the standards and ideals of their oaths.
- C. Precedence of the Order
 - a. This Order shall carry no precedence save that which each member already maintains.
- D. Changes to the Order
 - a. That unity and continuance of purpose be maintained, the Order shall petition the Crown upon unanimous vote of its members, to increase its members.
 - b. To protect and insure the essence of the Order, the charter may only be amended upon the unanimous vote of its members.
 - c. This Order shall remain open until the unanimous vote of its members petition the Crown for closure.
- E. Patronage and Insignia
 - a. Each initiate shall be patroned by a Companion to the Order of the Rose, who shall oversee the acquisition of the initiate's insignia to the Order.
 - b. The members of this Order shall wear a sable cloak with a border, Or, upon which shall be a garland of five petaled heraldic roses, sable, slipped and leaved, vert.

- c. As this Order is requested and patroned by the members of the Companions to the Order of the Rose, the scroll shall, alone, bear the signature of the Consort of the Sovereign.
 - d. This Order shall serve, upon request, as escorts to the incoming Consorts at their Coronation, and shall be available as council and support.
 - e. For their patronage, members of the Companions to the Order of the Rose have requested that this honor be known as "The Knights of the Sable Garland."
